SHARED LIVING AT A HISTORIC LANDMARK

"Thomas Edison was a frequent guest of Idylease while working on a magnetic ore extracting device at the Franklin Odgensberg Mine for the New Jersey Zinc Company".

Idylease offers thirty-day rental agreements that auto renew. Monthly rentals begin at $1,000 per month, depending on room size and configuration. One month's security and the first month's rent are required prior to occupancy. Assigned off-street parking is available.

The rooms have been carefully restored to reflect the period character of the building, with furnishings, upholstery and details that recall the tradition of gracious hotel living.

Residents have access to a large community kitchen designed for daily use. The kitchen includes a commercial stove, assigned refrigerator space, and designated cabinet or pantry storage for each resident.
